A Note from the Director

Thank you for coming to share in our first collaborative fine arts effort at Arab High School. Arab Musical Theatre would like to establish itself as an opportunity for our students in this community to experience the rewards of hard work and professionalism. In order to sustain a program of this size and nature, many resources must be called upon. Your help has given us an excellent starting point, but with further support we may continue to provide our students with these wonderful experiences. If you feel you may help in any way, please contact any production manager for more information. If sewing, building, or making props is not your idea of fun there are other ways to support our efforts. As you may already know, productions of this magnitude require a great deal of funding. As a non-profit organization, we would greatly appreciate any financial support our community has to offer.

Once again, thank you for coming and enjoy the show.

Brian Quillin
